Quotes

Dr Rhys Davies (LIME Chairman) on the Parade of Nations: "It's always extremely exciting announcing our daytime line-up and we hope that our parade inspires everyone to join us for our week-long festival of music and dance this summer."

Jo Marsh (Tŷ Pawb's Creative Director) on partnering with the Eisteddfod: "We are very excited to be working with such a prestigious and highly regarded festival. Llangollen International Eisteddfod is one of the biggest events on North Wales' cultural calendar."

Edward-Rhys Harry (LIME Music Director) on Music of Wales: "Wednesday is the centre of the week-long festival and I wanted Welsh music to be at the heart of this year's Eisteddfod. I am honoured and privileged to be able to create a piece in memory of my friend and inspiration, Kenneth Bowen, that celebrates the Land of Song as its very best. He was a long-time collaborator of another of my inspirations William Mathias CBE, and was founder of the London Welsh Chorale whom I have the honour to direct, so it will be a beautiful and emotional evening to have the chorale perform this premiere."

Dr Rhys Davies (LIME Chairman) on the Rotary Peace Award: "The initial idea of creating the Rotary International Peace Prize was born at the Llangollen Eisteddfod five years ago and with the festival's initiative of spreading peace, friendship and goodwill across all nations more important than ever, it's with great pride that we're able to highlight peace advocates in an international celebration".

Charlotte Hoather on winning the 2018 Voice of the future: "The competition gave me a massive boost. It's been huge for my confidence and helped me push the boundaries of where I could go and what I can do. And the prize money gave me such a massive opportunity to further my career."
