

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Llangollen International Musical Eisteddfod

Appointment of New Members

Unremunerated

Background

Every summer since 1947 Llangollen has staged one of the world's most inspirational cultural festivals. Each year around 4,000 performers and as many as 35,000 visitors converge on the beautiful small Welsh town and its International Pavilion; to sing and dance in a unique combination of competition, performance, and international peace and friendship.

Its competitions climax with the prestigious 'Choir of the World', which determines the best overall choir of the event. In 2005 Luciano Pavarotti added his name to the competition in recognition of his appreciation of the festival and its influence on his career.

The role

Llangollen International Musical Eisteddfod is looking for new trustees to join our board as we prepare to revision for the future. At this exciting and pivotal moment, we would like to strengthen and diversify our board with up to 4 new trustees over the next year, who will have ultimate responsibility for the strategic direction, development and governance of LIME.

Applicants must have a passion for arts and culture – along with high levels of energy, expertise and dedication. We welcome candidates from a diverse range of backgrounds and ages, and are particularly interested in hearing from individuals with strong knowledge of and widespread experience in:

- Marketing, media & PR
- Legal
- Enterprise/business development
- IT/Systems
- Strategic planning
- Digital technology
- International networks
- Advocacy

Further information

The appointment will be for a period of 3 years, but the person appointed will be eligible for reappointment for a further term.

We encourage and welcome applications from individuals from all backgrounds and communities, especially applications from black and minority ethnic communities and other under-represented groups.

All applications will be considered by the Eisteddfod Nomination Panel which includes the Chair, Vice-Chair and Interim Chief Executive in an advisory capacity.
